

low down

Jersey Farm has been serving good fodder for over 35 years. With the famous carvery and interesting bistro menu. All our meals are served in the restaurant and booking is advisable but not essential. There is a fully licensed bar leading into the conservatory c/w pool table. Gardens, patio with AI fresco dining. So why not make a night of your visit and stay after your meal for a drink and soak up the atmosphere. Private dining is available to book. Children are welcome at all times, however we do sincerely hope that parents will take responsibility. While there is no dress code we do hope that customers dress inspirationally.
